THE MINISTRY OF SPIRITUAL FREEDOM

How We Prepare Ourselves for Deliverance

1. Spend some time praising and worshipping the Lord and inviting His presence *(Psalm 22:3). When we spend 5-10 minutes worshipping God, His presence comes in to help us.
2. We ask God to release His angels into the deliverance session to do battle on our behalf (Psalm 103:19-20).
3. We plead the blood of Jesus over ourselves and the ones to whom we are ministering (Revelation 12:11).
4. We put on the whole armor of God (Ephesians 6:13-17).

   For example: Lord, I put on Your whole armor as I go into battle against the forces of darkness.
5. We ask the Holy Spirit to intervene and give us wisdom and discernment.

Beginning the Deliverance Process

1. We make sure that the candidate is saved by saying the following salvation prayer:

   Heavenly Father, I acknowledge and recognize that I am a sinner. I believe that Jesus Christ is Lord and Savior and that God raised Him from the dead. Today I repent and I make the decision to turn from my old lifestyle. Thank you for forgiving me of all my sins. Jesus, come into my heart and help me to be the person you want me to be. I am saved. If I died tonight, heaven would be my home. In Jesus' name. Amen.
2. We take authority over Satan and read the following scriptures or confessions aloud to force him out *(Luke 10:19-20). Remember, the enemy must surrender because of these promises. We lay hands on the person's shoulder or head while speaking aloud these authority scriptures.

Authority Commands

- Satan, you are already a defeated foe. Jesus Christ destroyed all your works on the cross (1 John 3:8).
- By the name of Jesus you must bow, and every tongue must confess that He is Lord. (Philippians 2:10-11).
- Jesus spoiled every principality and power, and He made a show of you openly (Colossians 2:15). Therefore, your power is no good here.

- Satan, we overcome you by the blood of the lamb Jesus Christ. I cover myself and this person with the blood (Revelation 12:11).
- Jesus has given me the power to tread upon serpents and scorpions (devils and demons) and over all your power, and nothing by any means shall harm me or this person (Luke 10:19).
- Therefore, I command you and every spirit to come out of this person (call their name) in the name of Jesus.
- Every demonic spirit's power is now null and void.
- I am seated with Christ in heavenly places, far above all principality and powers and might and dominion in the kingdom of darkness, and every name of a demon that is named (Ephesians 1:20-21; Ephesians 2:6).
- I am a joint heir with Christ. He has delegated His authority to me. Therefore, you must obey my authority. Your threats, intimidation, and fear tactics cannot touch or harm me (Romans 8:17).
- I am a believer. Jesus is in me. I have the right to cast you out, and you must go!
- God has given me the gift of righteousness through faith in Jesus Christ. This means I have right standing with Him. This means that I am not inferior to you, Satan (Romans 3:22).
- So as Jesus commanded evil spirits to flee, I command you to leave _____ now.
- I have power through Christ over every unclean spirit (Matthew 10:1) because the greater one lives in me (1 John 4:4).
- Every demon is subject to me through the name of Jesus. So in the name of Jesus, come out of _____ right now (Luke 10:17).
- I bind every spirit now. You cannot do to this person what you want to do. Whatever I bind on earth shall be bound in heaven (Matthew 16:19).
- The kingdom of darkness cannot stand against the kingdom of light and God's dear Son (Colossians 1:13). I have the kingdom of God within me. Come out of _____ right now. You will no longer have any place in him (Ephesians 4:27).
- We are made by God to overcome you, the wicked one, Satan (1 John 2:14).

Confession and Renunciation

We then address any legal rights through confession and renunciation. Whenever a demon or spirit(s) is present, either the person did something, or something was generationally passed down to him to give the demon the legal right to be there. There was some area of sin or breaking of God's laws that gave the enemy the right to be there. When the person you are ministering to confesses and renounces that sin, then the demon's power is removed. Although the demon will resist the commands to come out and will struggle to stay, once that person denounces that sin, then the spirit will ultimately have to let go. So we should have the person to renounce these areas of sin. Sometimes we will already know based on previous knowledge about the person. Sometimes we can discern by the Holy Spirit, or we will detect some issues by the information the demons themselves will provide. Renounce all offense, bitterness, and unforgiveness. If a spirit manifests, reacts, and/or talks back, then we can command that spirit to give us the information we need to have the person renounce the sin. For example, "How did you get here? Who are you? How long have you been there?"

We can force that spirit by the Holy Spirit to tell us. He has to do it because he is under our authority. So we keep at it until he tells us. When they are stubborn, we continue to remind them of our authority.

Once we get the information, we have the person to renounce the sin by repeating after us.

Demon: "I am the spirit of lust, and I have been here for 10 generations. She was molested when she was a child."

Deliverance Candidate: "I renounce every iniquity and command every accommodating curse to leave me now."

You: "I bind the spirit of lust and molestation to come out of her right now in Jesus' name."

Use Your Spiritual Weapons

We use our biblical weapons when we are casting or calling them out throughout the deliverance.

1. Use the name of Jesus. We always use the name of Jesus as we make our commands against the demons.
2. Use the Word of God as the sword of the Spirit. "Satan, I use the sword of the spirit to smite you in the Spirit." Quote authority scriptures.
3. Use the blood of Jesus. "Satan, we cover _____ with the blood of Jesus. You cannot harm him."
4. Command the angels. "I call on the angels of the Lord to force every demonic spirit out of _____."
5. Use the fire of God. We release the fire of God against every demon spirit to burn and consume them.
6. Use the anointing oil. Anoint the person with oil. We are applying the Holy Spirit upon them.
7. Pray in tongues. Praying in tongues causes the voice of the Holy Spirit to offer more direction, discernment, and wisdom to do the deliverance. This is the key to deliverance. Listen for His direction.

What to Look for When Demons Are Departing

Manifestations of spirits departing may include crying, coughing, sneezing, drooling, spitting, vomiting, whimpering, foaming, whining, screaming, gasping, choking, sighing, exhaling, roaring, yawning, belching, burping, body shaking or trembling.

Demon Behavior Manifestations During Deliverance

When demons manifest, many times these types of behaviors occur:

1. Squinty eyes – the person finds it hard to open his eyes. It could indicate a spirit of lust of the eyes, or of pornography.
2. Runny nose – often it indicates a spirit of lust.
3. Eyes rolling up in their eye sockets - indicates some form of occultism or witchcraft.
4. Glazed look in their eyes – occultism or demon possession.
5. Hands shaped like claws – an animal spirit, witchcraft, or murder.
6. Stiffness or rigidity in hands, fingers, or legs, indicates a spirit of masturbation.
7. Tongue moving in and out of mouth – a serpent or python spirit.
8. Laughter or a smile on their lips – a spirit of mockery.

Indicators of Deliverance

Of course there will be physical manifestations during deliverance, but do not expect this all the time. Many times demons will just quietly leave. We as ministers should not be disappointed or think we have failed if this does not happen. What we should expect instead is release. We know there is a release when:

1. Oppressive force disappears.
2. The eyes become clear.
3. Heaviness lifts.
4. Uneasiness goes away.
5. Burden is lifted or a load is lightened.
6. There is an inner sense of liberty, freedom, peace, divine satisfaction or contentment.
7. The joy of the Lord comes, and the person is able to rejoice and/or cry.

The result of deliverance is righteousness, peace, and joy in the Holy Ghost (Romans 14:17). When devils are cast out, the Kingdom of God has come (Matthew 12:28).

Prayer for a Cleansing

We pray and ask the Lord to cleanse every area of the individual's life and personality, including the mind, will, emotions, heart, soul, physical body, and even his/her sexual organs. For example:

> Heavenly Father, cleanse every area of this person's life by the blood of the Lord Jesus. I call them cleansed from (name sins here).

Prayer to Be Filled with the Spirit

When spirits depart, they will leave an emptiness inside that needs to be filled. Otherwise the spirits will attempt to return (Matthew 12:43-45). We must ask the Lord to fill them with the Holy Ghost, His presence, peace, and love.

The candidate should repeat after us: "Heavenly Father, I ask You to fill me and baptize me with your Holy Spirit. I receive your love, peace, power, and presence in my life right now in Jesus' name."

Other Demonic Common Areas to Call Out

If any of the following areas are present in a person, those spirits will usually react in some way. That indicates that we need to continue commanding them out until we see a release.
