

PRAYER FOR FINANCIAL PROVISION

Father, I come boldly before Your throne of grace that I may obtain help in this time of (financial) need in my life.

You said that we have not because we ask not. So I come before You in prayer, making my request known unto You, and asking for Your provision in supplying this need before me; for You said that if evil men know how to give good gifts unto their children, then how much more will our Heavenly Father give good gifts (and needful things) to His children that ask Him. So I ask through prayer, and by faith in Your unfailing Word, for this petition.

Father, You told us in Your Word, that if we would seek first the Kingdom of God and all Your righteousness, You would bless all our needs to be added unto us. You also told us that if we would delight ourselves in You, that You would give us the desires of our heart. Father, I pray that You would help and bless me to always seek You and Your righteousness as foremost in my life. I pray that I always find my delight in You. As I do so, I thank You for supplying every one of my needs and blessing me with the desires of my heart.

Lord, You are my Shepherd. And as my Shepherd, I confess Your Word that I shall not want (or be in lack of) any good, beneficial or needful thing in my life. For You are the God of my provisions, who supplies all my needs according to Your riches in glory; and You promised that You would not withhold any good thing from Your people who walk upright before You.

Father, You said that Your Spirit runs to and from throughout the whole earth to show Yourself strong on behalf of those whose hearts are mature towards You; therefore, I thank You for showing Yourself strong unto me against my enemies of debt and lack, and giving me victory over them as You supply this need, as well as every need in my life.

Father, You warned us that we would have many afflictions, but You also promised that You would deliver us from them all. Therefore, I thank You for Your strong hand of deliverance in supplying and meeting this need for me. Your Word states that You have never forsaken the righteous, nor allowed his seed to beg for bread. And Father, I confess according to Your Word that I am the righteousness of God- not because of my works, but because I am created in Christ Jesus, and I am made righteous through Him.

Father, You have established us as kings and priests unto the Most High King, Jesus Christ. You said that when a king shall decree a thing, it shall be established. So by Your authority, I decree that this present need in my life is established, and all of my needs are met and fulfilled.

Father, I thank You for the power and authority You have given unto us to speak to our circumstances. For You said that we can speak to our mountains and command them to be removed and cast into the sea. So Father, by the authority of Your Word, I speak to this mountain of debt, bills, and financial obligations before me. I speak to my (name specific bills and financial obligations), and I command them to be uprooted, removed from before me, and cast into the sea.

Father, as Jesus blessed the two fish and five loaves of bread and multiplied them to be able to feed the five thousand and still have plenty left over, I also speak the Word of God to my finances, and command them to be multiplied to be able to pay all my bills. I thank You that I still have plenty left over. I confess Your Word that I am completely out of debt, and I owe no man anything but to love them.

Father, I thank You for the promise of Your Word that You would rebuke the devourer for my sake. So by Your promise, and by the authority You have given unto me, I bind every hindering spirit that has attacked my finances. I bind every spirit of debt, lack and insufficiency in my life; and by the Word of the living God, I rebuke and cast them down, and I command them to loose and release every hold from my life and my finances, by the power and the authority of the name of Jesus Christ.

Father, according to Your Word, if an enemy is caught stealing, he must return seven-fold of that which he has stolen. Father, I have caught the enemy stealing (from me). For Your Word has revealed and exposed him as the thief that comes to steal, kill and destroy. So Satan, I command you by the authority of God's Word to return everything you have stolen from my life. For every single thing you have stolen from my life and my finances, I command you to return to me seven times that amount, by the authority of the name of the Lord Jesus Christ.

Now Father, I believe Your Word, and I am fully persuaded that what You have promised, You are also able to perform. And this is the confidence I have: that if I ask anything according to Your will, I know that You hear me. Since I know that You hear me, I know I have the petitions that I desire and have asked of You. I believe it, and I receive the blessings of the Lord in my life. In the name of Jesus Christ, I pray, AMEN!
