Prayer for Church Leadership

Father, in the name of Jesus, I ask You to raise up persons of vision and purpose in the body of Christ, persons of integrity who have the ability to unify and rally the body of Christ at large.

May they be godly examples to those whom they shepherd as they pray for Your guidance in every facet of their lives.

May they have the ability to make Your ways plain and clear, inspiring those who hear their words to seek a deep and abiding relationship with You, the Father of all.

Lord, give our church leaders a voice to speak to the conscience of our nation. May they not only influence the believer, but may they also influence those who have not yet come to know You as Lord and Savior. And may they use such words that would inspire and motivate our whole nation.
