

A PRAYER FOR WHEN YOU NEED COMFORT

Key Scripture: "I will not leave you comfortless: I will come to you." (John 14:18)

Key Thought: *"I know that my Redeemer lives what comfort this sweet sentence gives!"
(Samuel Medley)*

Prayer

Heavenly Father, I bless you because I know you are the Father of my Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. You are the Father of mercies, and you are the God of all comfort. Thanks you for comforting me in all the tribulations and losses I've experienced. I know that the lessons I've learned are invaluable, because you've taught me how to bring comfort to others in the same way you've comforted me. Thank you Lord.

Your Word is my treasure, Father. It promises me that you will always be with me, even if I have to pass through flood waters and raging waves. Lord you enable me to go through the fires of temptation without being burned. Thank you for loving me so much and for giving me an everlasting consolation and good hope through your grace. How I praise you, Father, that even now you are comforting my heart and establishing me in every good work and word.

Your Holy Spirit, Father, is the Comforter in my life. He is always with me, even when I have to walk through the valley of the shadow of death.

Your Word, dear Father, comforts me in my time of affliction. In fact, your Word brings life to me.

Therefore, Lord, as one of your redeemed, I come with singing into your presence, because I know that your everlasting joy is upon my head. I know you will give me gladness and joy, and I thank you that all sorrow and mourning shall flee. The realization that you are always with me gives me great peace and comfort.

Thank you for your comforting presence in my life, Father.

References: II Corinthians 1:3-4; Isaiah 43:2; II Thessalonians 2:16-17; John 14:16; Psalms 23:4; Psalms 119:50; Isaiah 51:11.