

PRAYING FOR YOUR CHILDREN IN CRISIS

HEAVENLY FATHER...

Watch over _____'s life. Do not slumber or sleep, but keep from all harm. Watch over him/her life, him/her coming and going, both now and forevermore. (Psalm 121:3-8)

Do not let anything separate _____ from your love. When trouble, hardship, persecution, danger, or any need arises, let _____ remember that we are "more than conquerors," and that nothing can separate him from the love of God that is in Christ Jesus our Lord. (Romans 8:35-39)

Cause _____ of offer his/her body as a living sacrifice, holy and pleasing to you, Lord. Let _____ see himself/herself as a temple of the Holy Spirit, belonging to you, that he/she might flee from sexual immorality and honor you with his/her body. (Romans 12:1; 1 Corinthians 6:18-20)

Do not let _____ be led astray by drugs and alcohol. (Proverbs 20:1)

Keep _____ as the apple of your eye; hide him/her in the shadow of your wings from the wicked who assail him/her, from mortal enemies who surround him/her. (Psalm 17:8-9)

Hem _____ in, behind and before; place your hand upon him/her so that wherever he/she goes and whatever he/she does, he/she will be accompanied by your presence. (Psalm 139:5-10)

Lord, you have summoned _____ by name and he/she belongs to you. When he/she passes through the waters, be with him/her; when he/she passes through the rivers, do not let them sweep him/her away. When he/she walks through the fire, do not let him/her be burned. And when _____ emerges from these trials, let him/her know that you are the Lord, that you are his/her God, that you are the Holy one of Israel, and that you are his/her Savior. (Isaiah 43:1-3)

As we pray for _____, do not let us be anxious about anything, but in everything, by prayer and petition, with thanksgiving, let us always remember to present our requests to you. And let your peace, which transcends all understanding, guard our hearts and our minds in Christ Jesus. (Philippians 4:6-7)
