

WORSHIPING THE LORD PRAYER

You are the One who lives forever, and you are worthy, O Lord, to receive glory and honor and power. You created all things, and for your pleasure they are and were created. This knowledge leads me to worship you. Thank you for creating me for your pleasure. I want to bless you and please you.

God, my Father, teach me how to be a worshiper in spirit and in truth. I want to be a true worshiper because I know that this is what you seek in my life. My spirit yearns to be in your presence. In your presence there is fullness of joy.

If I am to worship in spirit and truth, Lord, I realize that I must worship in honesty and candor about where I am spiritually and also that I must worship through your Word, for your Word is truth.

And teach me to be a listener, Lord; it seems so much easier to be a talker or a doer. One of the lessons in your story of Mary and Martha, Lord, is that sitting at your feet and listening is worship and it is the one needful thing in my life. May I never forget to take time each day to sit at your footstool and worship you. I bow my heart before you. I adore you and honor you. Father, I magnify your name.

When I realize all you have done for me, I am compelled to worship you. As I worship you, I rejoice in every good thing that you have given me. I rejoice in you, Lord. Being in your presence through worship is life's most wonderful blessing.

As you grant repentance to my heart, I turn to you in worship and adoration. I give unto, Lord, the glory that is due your name. I come before you and worship you in the beauty of holiness. You are my Father. I love you, and as I draw near to you, you fill my heart with glory. Heavenly Father, I appreciate you.

I turn my eyes upon you, O Lord, and the things of earth grow strangely dim in the light of your glory and grace. Worshiping you lifts me above my problems and gives me a new perspective on you ability to perfect all things concerning me. Hallelujah!
